Reading Town Centre, with its mainline railway station providing fast links to London, is approximately four miles away, while Junction 12 of the M4 motorway and Calcot Retail Park are within approximately three miles via the A4 Bath Road. A UPVC double glazed door from the kitchen provides access to the side of the property and in turn the front and rear gardens. The first floor offers two well proportioned double bedrooms which are serviced by a magnificent refitted bathroom featuring a shower over the bath.

Externally, the rear garden has been beautifully maintained and landscaped. It is fully enclosed and mainly laid to lawn with a patio seating area and a variety of mature shrubs and plants to the borders. There is also a useful outbuilding with light and power, ideal for storage. Gated side access leads to the front of the property where there is ample driveway parking.
