Chesterton Road, North Kensington W10

Welcome to Chesterton Road, a beautifully presented one-bedroom flat tucked away on a quiet, tree-lined street in North Kensington. Occupying the second floor of a handsome Victorian conversion, this home combines period charm with contemporary design, offering an inviting retreat in one of West London's most characterful neighbourhoods.

Light pours into the property from both sides, giving the flat a bright and uplifting feel even on overcast days. The open plan living and kitchen area is a standout space, featuring herringbone wooden floors, an original fireplace, and two generous windows that frame the room in natural light. There's space to dine, relax, and entertain in comfort, while the well-designed kitchen offers plenty of room for cooking and socialising.
