£340,000

Occupying a generous and well-maintained plot, this immaculate three-bedroom detached bungalow offers spacious and flexible accommodation with the significant advantage of no onward chain.

The accommodation includes a spacious lounge flowing into a separate dining area, fitted kitchen, two individual sunroom spaces, three bedrooms and a wet room. The principal bedroom also benefits from its own WC and direct access to a useful utility/sunroom, while bedroom three provides flexibility for those requiring a home office, guest room or hobby space.

Despite the generous plot, the gardens have been thoughtfully designed to remain secure and relatively low maintenance, with multiple seating areas and attractive mature planting. Further benefits include an electric awning, private driveway and detached single garage.

LOCATION

Wolsey Way occupies an excellent Uphill Lincoln position, particularly convenient for buyers wanting everyday amenities and public transport close at hand while remaining within easy reach of the wider city. The property is just a stone's throw from the shops at Nettleham Fields, providing convenient access to a variety of everyday shopping and services. A bus stop is positioned close to the property, providing a useful connection for travelling around Lincoln.

The area is also well placed for road connections around the north of Lincoln and towards the wider road network. Lincoln itself provides an extensive selection of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities and cultural attractions, together with the city's historic Cathedral Quarter. With local shops, public transport and excellent access around Lincoln all close at hand, Wolsey Way offers a particularly practical and convenient setting.
