The Tour

This two bedroom apartment is situated on the fifth floor of NQ4 buildings in Ancoats. Entered through a large hallway with a utility cupboard, ahead you are greeted with a spacious open plan living area which offers a Juliet balcony with views overlooking Blossom Street towards Cutting Room Square. You have two generously sized double bedrooms with newly replaced carpets and a large three piece family bathroom.

The property benefits from a secure, allocated parking space.

The Area

NQ4 enjoys a prime position in the heart of Ancoats, one of Manchester's most vibrant and sought-after neighbourhoods. The area is home to an array of popular independent businesses, including the Michelin-starred Mana restaurant, alongside local favourites such as Pollen Bakery, Rudy's Pizza, and General Store.

Close to the development lies the picturesque Rochdale Canal and the much-loved Ancoats Marina, providing the perfect setting for a leisurely walk, waterside coffee, or relaxed lunch during the warmer months.

The development is also ideally situated within easy reach of Manchester's Northern Quarter and Piccadilly Train Station, both accessible within approximately a 10–15 minute walk, making it exceptionally convenient for both city living and commuting.
