DESCRIPTION

The Forge is a substantial and versatile five-bedroom village residence, of cob and stone build with a slate roof, offering flexible accommodation ideally suited to multi-generational living or income potential. The property can be enjoyed as an impressive family home or arranged as a three-bedroom main house with an adjoining two-bedroom letting wing/self-contained annexe. The accommodation is complemented by two family bathrooms, a private courtyard garden and a garage. In addition, the property benefits from roof-mounted solar panels, enhancing its energy efficiency and appeal for modern living.

ACCOMMODATION

The heart of property is undoubtedly the superb kitchen/dining room, a wonderfully light and spacious area featuring vaulted ceilings, exposed beams and doors opening onto the garden, creating an ideal space for both family living and entertaining. The kitchen is beautifully appointed with bespoke solid wood units and worktops together with an oil-fired Aga. A useful utility room lies adjacent, whilst the welcoming hall with its charming window seat provides an additional and versatile dining or seating area. The cosy sitting room centres around an impressive inglenook fireplace with woodburning stove, offering a warm and relaxing retreat. Also on the ground floor is a further bedroom, equally suited for use as a study or playroom. Stairs rise to two further bedrooms and the family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a particularly striking room with vaulted ceilings and exposed original timbers, whilst the bathroom is attractively fitted with a roll top bath and separate shower, together with access through to the second bedroom.

The annexe is easily accessed internally via a connecting door and, whilst perfectly arranged as a self-contained living space with its own external entrance, can equally function seamlessly as part of the main residence. The accommodation comprises a sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room and bathroom on the ground floor, with stairs rising to two spacious and characterful bedrooms together with a generous dressing area. The property further benefits from solar PV panels and oil-fired central heating.
