St. Margarets Road, London, N17

Asking Price £750,000

Occupying a sought after position on St. Margarets Road, N17, is this renovated four bedroom period home. Extending into the loft, the property offers generous family accommodation arranged over three floors. The ground floor has been thoughtfully opened from front to rear to create an impressive open plan living, dining and kitchen space, flooded with natural light and seamlessly connecting to the west facing rear garden through bi-fold doors. A newly fitted contemporary kitchen and LVT wooden flooring throughout complete this great entertaining space, perfectly suited to modern family life.

The first floor comprises two well sized double bedrooms alongside a fully tiled family bathroom with standalone shower, while the loft conversion provides a further two generous bedrooms and a contemporary shower room. Every floor has been finished to an good standard, allowing any incoming purchaser to move straight in and enjoy.

Families will appreciate the selection of Ofsted Outstanding schools within easy reach, including Brook House Primary School, Harris Primary Academy Philip Lane, and Harris Academy Tottenham (an all through school catering for pupils aged 4 -18), all recognised for their exceptional educational standards.

Ideally positioned for commuters too, with the property within easy walking distance of Seven Sisters Underground & Overground Station around 15 minutes away, providing swift Victoria Line services into King's Cross in approximately 15 minutes, Oxford Circus in around 20 minutes, and Victoria in approximately 25 minutes.

The immediate area is equally well served by an abundance of eateries such as The Palm, cafes such as With Milk, green open spaces including Downhills Park, Lordship Recreation Ground, and the award winning Tottenham Marshes and Walthamstow Wetlands, offering miles of walking and cycling routes.
