Location

Northend is a peaceful hamlet immediately to the north of Batheaston, surrounded by attractive countryside while remaining within convenient reach of Bath. Batheaston provides a well-regarded primary school, local shops, a GP surgery, pharmacy, dentist, veterinary practice, hairdressers and the popular Gather Café. The surrounding countryside offers an excellent network of walking routes, including nearby Solsbury Hill, while Bath city centre is readily accessible by both road and public transport.

Internal Description

This attractive three-bedroom semi-detached chalet bungalow has been comprehensively renovated and improved during the current owners' tenure, resulting in a particularly well-finished and comfortable home that is ready to be enjoyed. Considerable thought has been given to both the quality of the interior and the way in which the accommodation relates to the garden, creating a property that feels cohesive, characterful and notably more spacious than its frontage might suggest.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and offers a pleasing balance between living and bedroom space. Oak flooring, natural limestone, solid timber work surfaces and carefully chosen fittings provide warmth and consistency throughout, while the wood-burning stove forms an attractive focal point within the dual-aspect sitting room. The generous L-shaped kitchen and dining room is one of the property's principal strengths. Well suited to both everyday family life and entertaining, it provides clearly defined areas for cooking, dining and informal seating, with glazed doors opening onto the rear terrace and creating an appealing connection with the garden. The kitchen itself has a traditional yet relaxed feel, with extensive storage, solid timber surfaces and space for a range-style cooker and American-style fridge freezer.

Two comfortable double bedrooms are situated on the ground floor and are served by a spacious family bathroom. Finished with limestone flooring, underfloor heating and a twin shower arrangement over the bath, the room reflects the same attention to detail found elsewhere in the property.

To the first floor you will find a most impressive double bedroom with a freestanding pebble bath, from which to enjoy the views, an en-suite cloakroom and plenty of eves storage. This superb addition to the property is ideal for multi generational living as it offers space for occasional furniture.

External Information

The established frontage incorporates attractive espalier fruit trees, with a generous driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to the garage. To the rear, the beautifully landscaped garden is undoubtedly one of the highlights of the property. Sunny, mature and exceptionally well maintained, it has been thoughtfully arranged with paved terraces, established borders and an impressive variety of planting providing colour and interest throughout the seasons. A charming summerhouse forms an attractive focal point and offers additional space for relaxation, hobbies or occasional home working.
