PROPERTY SUMMARY

A former fisherman's cottage in a private road that has been modernised to create an outstanding family home with just over 1230 sq ft of living space arranged on three floors. The main front door at the side opens into a spacious family room with painted balustrade staircase rising to the upper levels, to the front is a 13 lounge with dual aspect windows and to the rear is a 13' kitchen/breakfast room, shower room and utility room leading to rear garden. On the first floor are two double bedrooms and a family shower room and on the top floor is another double bedroom with views towards the harbour. The house benefits from an allocated parking space to the rear side pedestrian access and an enclosed low maintenance paved garden with shed. Located just moments away from the harbour foreshore with easy access via a public slipway being ideal for kayaks and sailing. The village centre of Emsworth is a short stroll away with shops, amenities, pubs and restaurants, Havant Railway station with its direct links to London Waterloo is a five-minute driveway and accessible motorway links to major cities are ideal for those looking to commute. The house is offered in excellent condition, with no forward chain and also has the ideal potential to be used as an Air B&B rental with its ideal waterside location and local attractions, early viewing is recommended in order to appreciate the potential, accommodation and location on offer.
