A Charming Grade II Listed Four-Bedroom Stone House with Extensive Gardens Occupying an enviable position within the hamlet of Whitcott Keysett, just outside Clun, this exceptional four-bedroom detached stone house is a wonderful example of a characterful period home, beautifully complemented by extensive and thoughtfully arranged gardens. Grade II listed, the property is rich in original features, including exposed timber beams, impressive stone fireplaces, attractive stone elevations and a wealth of period charm throughout with modern features such as solar panels with a battery for surplus energy.

The front door opens into a welcoming kitchen/dining room, featuring exposed ceiling beams, a tiled floor and a useful walk-in pantry cupboard. From here, a door leads to the downstairs shower room, while a staircase rises to the first floor providing access to the main bedroom and bathroom.

The sitting room is a particularly appealing space, centred around a beautiful feature fireplace with a wood burner fitted and enjoying exposed timber beams and wooden flooring. It is a room that perfectly showcases the character and atmosphere of this wonderful home. A secondary hallway provides access to the cellar, perfect for storage with light and power. Off the secondary hallway is a further reception room, which offers excellent flexibility and could be used as either a dining room, additional sitting room or perhaps a more informal family room, depending upon the needs of the new owners.

A further staircase from this part of the house rises to the first floor, where there are two double bedrooms and a separate WC, with another staircase continuing to the fourth bedroom on the top floor.

Outside, the property is equally impressive. The extensive gardens have been thoughtfully divided into a variety of different areas, creating a succession of spaces in which to relax, entertain and enjoy the peaceful surroundings. A dedicated vegetable garden provides excellent space for keen gardeners and includes a charming glass greenhouse. The garden then leads around to a delightful pond and seating area, an idyllic spot to enjoy a morning coffee whilst taking in the tranquillity of the surroundings. Further lawned areas provide plenty of space for outdoor enjoyment, with gates giving access towards the side of the stream. The grounds also benefit from a large shed, carport and useful workshop, providing excellent storage and practical space for those requiring room for hobbies, gardening equipment or workshop use.
