The Setting:

The setting and approach to Millwood is superb. A sweeping private drive through attractive mature trees leads to an impressive, Gated Entrance. You then pass the walled garden of a late-Georgian villa on one side and the hedge-lined boundary of a Grade II listed, 1700s farmhouse on the other. The architectural style is Georgian, in keeping with the surrounding Heritage-Parkland Setting. The site occupies a large area of land, so every property has a generous plot and good separation from other buildings. There's ample Private Parking and well-sized Garages for each property. Just inside the gates is additional Visitor Parking.

All Mains Services except gas. Heating is via Air Source Heat Pump.
