An extremely rare opportunity to acquire a beautiful end-of-terrace cottage on Witney Road, these charming character homes are considered the pride of Burnham-on-Crouch and are regularly captured by both local and visiting artists.

The location is a standout feature, offering a short stroll to the riverfront, independent shops, popular restaurants, and renowned yacht clubs — perfect for embracing everything this vibrant riverside town has to offer.

Deceptive from first glance, the cottage opens into a cosy and inviting living room, complimented by a generously sized dining room. To the rear, a spacious and thoughtfully designed country style kitchen flows seamlessly into a garden room/lobby which in turn provides rear access into the property.

Upstairs, the property boasts two very generous double bedrooms, a well-proportioned single bedroom, and a good-sized modern shower room.

Externally, there is a courtyard area with rear access shared exclusively between the four cottages in the terrace, leading to a private west-facing garden — perfect for enjoying afternoon and evening sunshine.

Additionally, the property benefits from its own private parking space, a significant and highly desirable feature both here and within the town generally.

A truly special cottage in an exceptional setting.
