South-Facing Garden on One of the Area's Most Desirable Streets! Boasting a strong sense of community and beautiful period homes creating a truly special place to live, this handsome double-bay Victorian home has been lovingly maintained and thoughtfully cared for over many years. A charming frontage, framed by vibrant red velvet roses, offers an inviting first impression. Inside, the generous accommodation is perfectly suited to modern family life. The elegant open-plan lounge diner flows seamlessly into a spacious extended kitchen diner, creating a fantastic social hub for everyday living, family gatherings and entertaining alike. French doors and skylight open onto the beautifully maintained, south-facing garden, flooding the room with natural light, while a convenient cloakroom completes the ground floor. Upstairs, three generous double bedrooms provide plenty of versatile living space, complemented by a beautifully finished shower room featuring luxurious tiling and high-quality fittings. A wonderful south-facing garden and an exceptional location close to excellent local amenities, cycle path at the top of the road and transport links, this is a home that offers not just beautiful accommodation, but a fantastic lifestyle within a welcoming and established community.
