THE PROPERTY

Silverdale Farm is a charming detached period farmhouse with stone and flint elevations and Hamstone features under a slate roof. The property was originally run as a small dairy farm and an animal sanctuary and fell into a dilapidated state. It was then subject to extensive refurbishment and enlargement to provide a fine family home with quality amenities, including equestrian use.

The well appointed accommodation features oil-fired central heating, bespoke timber sash double glazed windows, stone and beam fireplace with wood burner, quality kitchen with solid oak fronted units, granite worktops and comprehensive appliances (Rangemaster range cooker, Neff microwave, integrated dishwasher and Rangemaster American-style fridge/freezer), utility with matching units, quality en-suite shower room with walk-in shower and Travertine tiles, bathroom/shower room with freestanding contemporary bath and a security alarm system.

The property enjoys delightful views over the surrounding countryside and from the first floor sea glimpses.

Extending to:

Ground floor - Entrance porch, hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, study/4th bedroom, utility, cloakroom

First floor - Landing, principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms, bathroom/shower room.

Silverdale Farm has extensive land, including formal gardens and pasture land together with an extensive range of outbuildings, which potentially lend themselves to a variety of uses from smallholding and equestrian use.

The availability of Silverdale Farm onto the open market is a rare opportunity.

OUTSIDE

Silverdale Farm is screened from the lane, set back and approached through five-bar gates onto an extensive parking area.

The attractive well stocked formal gardens are interspersed with a wide variety of trees and shrubs, including ??? tree and an adjoining sun terrace, summerhouse, outside store and gardener's WC. Just beyond is a small paddock which is stock-proofed with post and rail fencing and an orchard, ideal for equestrian facilities with direct access to a network of bridlepaths.

Excellent range of outbuildings – hay and sheep barns, dairy barn, dairy store and two timber stables.

Three large fields with water trough and an additional field gate onto the main Uplyme Road.

SITUATION

Silverdale Farm occupies a delightful, peaceful and secluded, country setting on the fringes of Uplyme. The village has an excellent variety of local amenities including a petrol station, church, school, village hall with cricket pavilion, play area and playing fields, and a public house. Within only a few miles is the bustling, picturesque, town of Lyme Regis, set on the stunning Jurassic Coast. The town has a thriving heart offering convenience and bespoke shopping as well as a whole number of restaurants and a charming independent theatre. Lyme Regis has a fantastic beach and the famous Cob. The whole area is designated as an AONB and has excellent walking and riding out opportunities, easily accessible from the property. The nearby market town of Axminster has a mainline service to London Waterloo.
