55, Upper Grosvenor Road, Tunbridge Wells

Offers In Region Of £150,000

1 1 1

As you step into this charming flat, you're immediately greeted by a sense of light and warmth.

To your right, you'll find the bedroom – a comfortable double room with a large window that fills the space with natural light. There's plenty of room for furniture, making it a calm and restful retreat.

To your left is the bathroom, fitted with sleek, modern fixtures and a shower-over-bath combination that offers both style and practicality.

Continue straight ahead and you'll enter the living area, the true heart of the home. A beautiful bay window floods the space with sunlight, creating a welcoming and airy atmosphere. There's ample space here for both lounging and dining, with a handy utility cupboard tucked away for extra storage.

A partitioning wall separates the living room from the kitchen, which lies just to the right. The kitchen is bright and functional, featuring plenty of above-counter storage, an integrated gas hob with extractor fan, and generous counter space – perfect for everyday cooking and entertaining.

Adding to its appeal, the flat boasts private parking at the rear – a rare and highly sought-after feature in such a central and well-connected location.

This property is ideal for first-time buyers, buy-to-let investors, or commuters looking for a convenient and comfortable home.

Located in the heart of Tunbridge Wells, this property offers a desirable location. The town centre, just a short walk away, boasts a variety of shops, cafés, and restaurants, including the historic Pantiles, known for its charming boutiques and vibrant markets. Calverley Grounds and Dunorlan Park, both within a mile, provide beautiful green spaces. Tunbridge Wells train station (0.5 miles) offers direct links to London. For leisure, Knights Park is just a short drive away, featuring a cinema, bowling, and shopping options.
