Talbot Terrace, Lewes

GUIDE PRICE £600,000 - £650,000

Tucked away on a quiet, no-through road in the sought-after Pells area of Lewes, this beautiful two bedroom mid-terraced period home effortlessly combines traditional character with modern living, offering approximately 973 sq ft of accommodation arranged over three floors.

Behind its attractive bay-fronted façade, the property opens into a wonderfully inviting open-plan living and dining space, featuring wooden flooring, a feature fireplace, exposed brickwork and a wood-burning stove. The accommodation flows naturally into the modernised kitchen, fitted with shaker-style cabinetry and wooden worktops, whilst a striking roof lantern and doors opening directly onto the garden allow natural light to flood the space.

The first floor comprises a generous double bedroom with an exposed brick chimney breast and period fireplace, alongside an impressive bathroom complete with a freestanding roll-top bath, separate shower and period fireplace. Occupying the second floor is a spacious double bedroom with characterful sloping ceilings and a rooflight.

The enchanting rear garden is arranged over several levels, with established trees, mature planting, brick steps and tucked-away seating areas, creating a leafy retreat with a wonderful cottage garden feel. A separate external utility room provides a welcome practical addition, whilst the property also offers scope for further extension, subject to the necessary planning permissions and consents.

Talbot Terrace enjoys a peaceful yet incredibly convenient position in the ever-popular Pells neighbourhood. Lewes town centre, with its independent shops, cafés and traditional pubs, is just moments away, alongside the much-loved Pells Pool and recreation ground.

Beautifully individual and brimming with character, this is a home that captures much of what makes living in Lewes so special.
