IF YOU LIVED HERE....

A bright and spacious home unfolding across one level, this is a Victorian conversion with a lot more room than you might expect. The front bedroom sits in the bay, full of natural light and period character, while the second bedroom offers welcome flexibility for guests, a child's room or a calm place to work from home. Across the rest of the apartment, the finish feels thoughtful and easy to settle into, with Amtico flooring running throughout the main living spaces and rear of the property.

To the back, the large ground floor extension opens everything out beautifully. The kitchen and living space has been designed with everyday living in mind, with a natural flow between cooking, dining and relaxing, and wide openings drawing the garden into view. The bespoke Corian worktop brings a clean, carefully considered finish to the kitchen, while underfloor heating to the rear of the property adds an extra level of comfort.

Step outside and the rear garden stretches to thirty six feet, giving you plenty of outdoor room to enjoy in warmer months. At the far end, the garden studio is a real bonus, whether you need a creative space, somewhere to work, or simply a quiet retreat away from the main home. Altogether, it's a charming home with tasteful interiors, strong proportions and a setting that makes day to day life feel very easy.

WHAT ELSE?

- Highams Park Station is close at hand, with regular Weaver line services into Liverpool Street, making the City pleasingly straightforward to reach.
- Your new local is the grand Royal Oak. A great spot to enjoy delicious food in eye-pleasing surroundings, it's just eight minutes on foot too.
- Drivers can be on the M25 or North Circular in around 10 minutes.

A WORD FROM THE OWNERS.....

"We absolutely love Highams Park and our home, in fact, we are staying in the area so whoever decides to live here will likely end up being our friends. The community, the pubs (The Stag and Lantern is our favourite), the lake that leads to the forest, the connections into London and of course, our little slice of East London equipped with a music studio and beautiful garden full of birds and plants. We are so sad to say goodbye and we know the next owner will fill the flat full of love and memories like we have. Highams Park really is the best little village in London and to the next owner, we can't wait for you to fall in love like we did!"
