Crookes • Sheffield • S10 1LR

Guide Price £265,000 - £280,000

A fabulous, refurbished, 3-bedroom brick-built terrace house in Crookes. Improved, earlier this year by the present owner to create a lovely, stylish home over three floors. Features include a beautiful new kitchen, in-trend décor and new carpets, a white bathroom suite, super attic bedroom, and an end-of-row south-west facing rear garden, which creates a light and airy interior. Benefits from gas central heating run from a combination boiler, uPVC double-glazing, and a security alarm. A lovely home which will appeal to a variety of buyers. Viewing recommended. A new composite front door opens into a bay window lounge, styled with in-trend colours and finished with a focal electric fire, new carpets, which flow through most of the house, and fitted blinds to the bay, which are included in the sale. The dining kitchen has a range of newly fitted units finished with white, marble effect worktops, matching splashbacks, complemented by a pale grey, wood effect floor. Included in the sale is an integrated oven, a gas hob, extractor, and slimline dishwasher. There is space for a fridge. The sink sits beneath a rear window providing ample natural light. A door leads into the utility room, which doubles up as an entrance lobby. There is a further, tall, matching unit, housing the Ideal combination boiler. Besides, is plumbing for a washing machine and space for a freezer. From the dining room, there is a door to a cellar head, with steps leading down to front storage cellar, offering some scope for conversion in the future, subject to any necessary consents. On the first floor, there is a landing with a spindled staircase, panelled internal doors with quality fittings and a continuation of the new carpets. The front bedroom is a double room with a decorative Victorian fireplace and a clothes closet. The rear bedroom is a single size, catching the afternoon sun. It can be used as an office if working from home. The bathroom has a white suite including a shower over the bath with a glass screen, a vanity wash basin, and WC, finished with a cupboard, with shelving above, and a chrome heated towel rail. From the first-floor landing, stairs rise to an impressive attic double bedroom, generous in size and well-presented, with two radiators, a storage cupboard, and a rear Dormer window with a blind. Outside, there is a forecourt, a shared passage, leading to the rear. Number 21 benefits from an end-of-row garden with a south-west facing aspect, finished with a patio and terrace, ideal for entertaining, a planted border, and brick outhouse for storage. Ramsey Road is an extremely popular road, well-served by local shops, cafes, restaurants, and bars in Crookes and Commonsides, recreational facilities, schools, public transport, and access links to the hospitals, universities, city centre, train station, as well as the Peak District.
