A rare opportunity to acquire a highly productive block of land extending to 8.94 Ha (22.10 acres). The land lies in one block split into two land parcels.

Tenure: Freehold

A rare opportunity to acquire a productive block of land within the highly sought after area of the Eden Valley. The land in its entirety extends to 8.94 Ha (22.10 acres) and lies within one block split into two land parcels. The land is bound by the public highway to the North and other agricultural properties, to the East, South and West. Historically the land has offered excellent stock grazing but with improvement it has the potential to be silageable. The land benefits from two points of roadside access, offering perfect flexibility.

Directions

From the centre of Castle Carrock, take the B6413 (Rectory Rd) heading West. Immediately take the right fork in road signposted for How Mill and Armathwaite. Following the left turn in the road, continue for 1.5 miles where the gateway to the land can be found on the left hand side.
