- Built in 2020 with remainder of structural warranty
- Three bedrooms and family bathroom
- Stylish kitchen/dining room
- Bright living room overlooking the garden
- Ground floor WC
- Two off-road parking spaces to the side
- Enclosed rear garden with lawn and patio
- Rarely available three bedroom design on this development

Situated off the main thoroughfare on the popular Tarka View development, this modern semi-detached home combines practical family living with lovely far reaching countryside views.

Built in 2020 by Devonshire Homes, the property still benefits from the remainder of its structural warranty and offers well-presented accommodation ready for a new owner to move straight into.

The location works particularly well for buyers needing access to Exeter, with excellent road, bus and rail links all close by, while being on the edge of Crediton means countryside walks are also easily accessible straight from the doorstep.

Properties like this are also relatively rare on the development. It sits nicely between the smaller two bedroom semis and the larger detached three bedroom homes, giving buyers the advantage of a genuine three bedroom layout at a more accessible price point, something that rarely becomes available here.

Inside, the house has a bright and modern feel throughout. The kitchen/dining room is particularly impressive, well fitted with contemporary units and designed as a sociable everyday living space with room for dining and entertaining.

To the rear, the living room overlooks the garden and enjoys plenty of natural light, while a useful downstairs WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs are three bedrooms along with the family bathroom, all presented in good condition throughout.

Outside, the rear garden is enclosed and designed to be both practical and easy to enjoy, combining paved seating areas with lawn.

To the side of the property are two off-road parking spaces.

Overall, this is a really well positioned modern home offering a balance of convenience, views and low maintenance living in one of Crediton's most popular newer developments.

CREDITON is a vibrant market town with a bustling high street full of independent shops, eateries, and pubs. In recent years a diverse arts scene has grown to include all manner of mediums, with the performing arts making use of the town's market square where, in the summer months, a range of activities take place. The market square is also home to the town's twice-monthly farmer's market. The town has an equally significant past. It was originally the first Bishopric in Devon and the imposing Parish Church of The Holy Cross now stands where once stood Devon's first Saxon cathedral (909-1050AD). It is also the birthplace of Saint Boniface, one of the founding fathers of the Christian church in Europe. Easily commutable to Exeter and with two primary schools, a secondary school with sixth form as well as a wide range of necessary amenities, it's clear why the town is a firm favourite with locals and relocators alike.
