Property Introduction

Located within a cul-de-sac position in Redruth is this splendid detached family home believed to have been constructed in 2018 and with the remainder of an NHBC guarantee.

Having an attractive part stone faced front exterior the property has ample off-road parking and to the side on a double tarmac driveway. Internally the accommodation has the advantage of uPVC double glazed windows and doors complemented by a gas fired central heating system with a kitchen/diner boasting a good range of storage cupboard and integrated appliances.

Externally to the rear is an enclosed garden laid mainly to lawn along with a paved patio and useful storage shed found to the side. Overall this is a splendid detached family property ideal for those seeking a property being close to local amenities including both junior and secondary schools.

Location

Redruth is a traditional Cornish mining town steeped in a rich industrial past and is also a world heritage site. The town offers a variety of commercial outlets along with a mainline Railway Station operating to London Paddington. The nearby A30 Trunk Road links other areas of the county as well as both the North and South coast being within a reasonable travelling distance with their contrasting coastlines.

For those keen on walking, Carn Brea and the great flat load are close and along with the Tehidy country park located in Pool being very popular for families to explore and leading to the majestic north coastal path.
