Delightfully situated on the outskirts of the highly desirable coastal village of Mullion and commanding enviable panoramic views across rolling countryside to the rugged coastline beyond, is this well proportioned four bedroom detached dormer bungalow with a self contained two bedroom annexe.

Seldom do we see such expansive and wide ranging vistas encompassing both the sweeping West Cornwall coastline and an equally impressive rural backdrop with Tregoning Hill and the iconic Goonhilly Space Station in the distance. These should certainly be viewed to be fully appreciated.

The impressive and spacious open plan lounge and dining area is enhanced by authentic wood flooring and a striking wood burning stove with a contemporary exposed flue – perfect for those cosy nights in. The triple aspect sun room has an impressive vaulted glass ceiling and French doors opening out invitingly onto the patio area – the perfect room for post dinner relaxation and watching the sun go down. The magnificent master bedroom offers an elevated sanctuary with fine coastal views, bespoke fitted storage, and a dressing area. Three additional double bedrooms provide generous accommodation for family and guests alike with two en suites and an additional wet room.

The self contained two bedroom annexe provides a versatile and practical open plan living space which would seem well suited for a dependent relative or young adult seeking their own independence.

Outside the gardens and grounds are framed by established hedging and fencing with expanses of lawn and a feature border housing an array of specimen shrubs and plants. A raised patio offers an opportunity to sit out and enjoy the sunny aspect or enjoy a spot of al fresco dining in warmer months.

Generous off road parking is provided for several vehicles whilst there is also an adjacent garage and storage shed .

The accommodation in brief comprises a conservatory, kitchen, open plan lounge /dining room, sunroom, four bedrooms (two ensuite), a wet room and a separate self-contained two bedroom annexe with an open plan kitchen, lounge and dining area. The property benefits from double glazing and LPG fired central heating. Mullion is the largest village on the Lizard Peninsula which itself plays host to many clubs, societies, and organisations. It offers a good range of facilities, including shops to cater for everyday needs, both primary and comprehensive schools and a nursery, 18-hole links golf course, Catholic, Anglican and Methodist Churches, a health centre, and Boots pharmacy. It boasts an attractive harbour and two beaches.
