Arley Road, B91 1NJ

Occupying a particularly desirable plot on Arley Road, this executive detached four-bedroom, home offers an exceptional combination of location, existing accommodation and future potential. Being positioned at the head of the cul-de-sac is undoubtedly one of its greatest assets, situated within easy walking distance of Solihull town centre, the railway station, highly regarded schools, gyms, tennis clubs and a wealth of everyday amenities. It is this outstanding convenience, coupled with the highly regarded residential setting, that makes this area such a popular choice for families and those looking to enjoy everything Solihull has to offer.

The current home is beautifully presented and clearly loved, beginning with an inviting entrance hall with "Karndean" flooring & "Neville Johnson" staircase with atmospheric mood lighting, useful cloaks storage beneath and a well-appointed guest cloakroom.

The wraparound kitchen is exceptionally well planned, centred around an island and extending along the rear elevation where windows overlook the garden. Well fitted throughout, it provides an ideal space for both family life and entertaining, with access to the side patio, a useful laundry area and a separate snug area with access to the integrated garage.

To the opposite side of the property, the dual-aspect living room enjoys a feature fireplace and doors opening directly onto the garden, while a separate dining room again with doors opening directly onto the garden, provides an elegant space for more formal occasions.

Upstairs are four bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a contemporary en-suite.

Planning permission has been granted for significant further accommodation. This provides a rare opportunity for a new owner to take forward an already-approved scheme, which has no time limitation, and create a substantial home tailored to their own requirements.

Planning permission

Planning permission has been granted for significant further accommodation, including a separate double garage with electric gates and additional ground-floor accommodation. Groundworks for the approved proposals have already commenced, with the existing garden currently partially excavated for the proposed footings. This provides a rare opportunity for a new owner to take forward an already-approved scheme and create a substantial home tailored to their own requirements. :Application No: PL/2019/02963/MINFHO - Carport side extension including new metal side gate and railings.

Extended driveway; existing garage converted to study and utility; new pitched roof to existing garage/kitchen; new canopy roof to front elevation and changed of materials to front elevation; single storey rear extension (Resubmission of planning approval PL/2019/00883/MINFHO).
