Property Description

Nestled within one of Sutton-in-Ashfield's most desirable neighbourhoods, this impressive four-bedroom detached residence combines space, style, and practicality—making it the perfect choice for family living.

A bright hallway sets the tone for the home's inviting atmosphere, leading to a contemporary kitchen with ample storage and generous worktop space. At the heart of the property lies a versatile open plan living and dining area, perfectly suited for both relaxation and entertaining. Patio doors open onto the rear garden, allowing natural light to flood the space and creating a seamless indoor-outdoor connection. A convenient ground-floor WC adds practicality for guests.

Upstairs, the master bedroom offers a true retreat with fitted wardrobes, a Juliet balcony, and private en-suite. Three further well-proportioned bedrooms provide flexibility for family, guests, or home office use, with two also benefiting from built-in wardrobes. The neutral family bathroom, featuring a four-piece suite, ensures comfort for all.

Externally, the property boasts a generous driveway providing ample off-road parking. The beautifully maintained rear garden is laid to lawn and enhanced by a paved seating area, decorative planting, a storage shed, and secure fencing—creating a tranquil and private outdoor retreat.

This attractive home is perfectly suited to growing families who value space, comfort, and location. Contact our team today to arrange your viewing.
