

6 HAIGH CRESCENT, REDHILL, SURREY, RH1 6RA

£375,000
FREEHOLD

Bright and spacious two bedroom house with a delightful outlook, located in a peaceful neighbourhood.

Oaklands Park is a well maintained community for residents over the age of 55 years old, and is a very popular place to live with the benefit of some beautiful communal grounds.

Haigh Crescent in particular is a lovely, secluded little spot in a quiet cul de sac. The property itself has an entrance hall with a cloakroom, there is a large living room with a bay window and seat overlooking the front gardens. You have a separate dining room with garden access, and a generous, modern kitchen. Upstairs there is a landing with ample built in storage and loft access, both bedrooms are good size doubles with built in wardrobes. You also have the rare benefit of a full shower room and a full bathroom, both of which have double glazed windows.

Outside there is a side access gate, beyond which you have a private patio area, which overlooks well kept communal lawns. The property has an allocated car port, and there is also plenty of visitor parking.

** A single garage is available at an additional cost, please talk to us for further information **

Nearby there are a couple of handy local shops, one of which is the popular family run store Holborns. There are bus route connecting you to the town centre, as well as Earlswood mainline train station which has services to central London and Gatwick.
