DESCRIPTION

A substantial former farmhouse offering six bedrooms, three reception rooms, and a one-bedroom annexe, all set within approximately 2.37 acres of beautifully landscaped and well-established grounds. Enjoying a prominent and private position, the property provides spacious and flexible accommodation ideally suited to family living, multigenerational use, or those seeking a peaceful rural retreat. Accessed via a horseshoe driveway, the home is complemented by formal gardens, a double garage with potential for conversion (subject to planning), former paddocks now richly planted with mature specimen trees and two former stables.

ACCOMMODATION

A wide, curved stone wall entrance leads to the right hand side of the driveway, with parking beside the side door, while the left hand driveway sweeps past the double garage and the glazed front entrance. Stepping through the glazed entrance, the 15' reception hall gives an immediate sense of the character and scale within. To the left lies the third reception room, featuring a brick fireplace and the original access to the annexe which is currently sealed but could easily be reinstated if desired. To the right, a dual-aspect dining room enjoys garden views and a striking central inglenook fireplace.

The kitchen is well-appointed with a range of floor, wall, and drawer units, a four-ring LPG hob, electric oven, and a deep cupboard housing a modern boiler. At the end of the inner hallway is the main sitting room which provides an inviting space with an impressive stone inglenook fireplace, log burner and French doors leading to the rear garden. This hall also provides access to a cloakroom and a walk-in larder/store. Completing the ground floor is a large utility room with further cabinetry, appliance space, and access to the gravel driveway.

Stairs from the reception hall rise to a split-level landing. To one side is the smallest bedroom with vaulted ceiling, a family bathroom, and a separate shower room. The landing continues to five double bedrooms, two with vaulted ceilings, two stretching over 16 feet in length, and the principle bedroom benefitting from a wall of built-in cupboards. A generous Jack and Jill-style family bathroom completes the first-floor layout.

The annexe, currently accessed externally, is ideal for guests, extended family, or holiday letting. A glazed front door opens into a bright, dual-aspect kitchen/breakfast room with fitted units and space for appliances. The sitting room is notably spacious, featuring a stone fireplace with log burner and doors opening onto the gardens near the ornamental pond. Upstairs is a galleried landing, double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, and a bathroom with a traditional three-piece suite.

OUTSIDE

The property sits within a diverse and beautifully landscaped plot extending to approximately 2.37 acres. The grounds are a true highlight, with formal gardens laid to lawn, a large vegetable plot, meadow grassland, and thoughtfully curated planting. The current owners have enhanced the land over the last 30 years with a wide variety of trees, creating a tranquil and mature setting. To the front of the property are maintained lawns and flower beds.

Near the side entrance are a gardener's store and log store, while further up the grounds stand the former stables, now with power and light connected and a water supply nearby. The double garage also benefits from power and lighting. Throughout the gardens, there is a deep sense of calm and seclusion, with views across open farmland, making this a truly special rural haven.
