SITUATION

Wrights House sits peacefully within the heart of the conservation village of Culross overlooking West Green and from the terraced gardens enjoys wonderful panoramic views across the Firth of Forth towards West Lothian. A lively, friendly community, Culross is one of the most complete examples in Scotland of a 17th Century Royal Burgh and is widely acknowledged as one of the most picturesque villages in Scotland used in numerous film sets including the TV drama “Outlander”.

In superb setting of white-harled 16th and 17th century houses with red pan-tiled and cobbled streets and an ochre-coloured Palace with its beautifully reconstructed period garden, complete with herbs, fruit, vegetables and rare Scots Dumpy hens sitting at the centre of The Royal Burgh. Culross is a beautiful and historic coastal sea-port village dating back to medieval times yet lying just 12 miles west of the Forth Road Bridge and now has a vibrant social community for both adults and children with a small primary school, parks, eating places as well as a gallery, renowned Pub/Restaurant and pier. The village is served with good bus links and is within easy commuting distance to both Edinburgh and Glasgow. Dollar Academy is 14 miles to the north. The house is also well positioned for the Edinburgh Schools including Cargilfield Prep School, Fettes and George Watsons College. Edinburgh.

Nearby Dunfermline is Scotland's historic capital, a bustling city with a good road and rail network making it one of the most accessible in central Scotland. Dunfermline has a broad range of amenities including professional services, a good retail offering and leisure facilities including the principal bus station on Queen Anne's Street and educational establishments associated with a modern City. Dunfermline mainline railway station offers regular and direct services to Edinburgh’s stations, including Waverley (under 35 minutes), Edinburgh Gateway (under 25 minutes) and Haymarket (under 30 minutes). Edinburgh International Airport is only 16 miles away and there's easy access to M90 and Scotland's major motorway network.
