Location...

Nestled within the highly regarded village of Boreham, this property enjoys an enviable setting between Chelmsford City Centre and Hatfield Peverel, perfectly combining the charm of village life with excellent convenience for day-to-day living and commuting alike.

Boreham is a particularly desirable Essex village, well known for its welcoming community atmosphere and excellent range of local amenities. Residents benefit from a popular village hall, two recreation grounds, a parade of shops, hairdressers, barbers, a post office, primary school and doctor's surgery, together with a fine butchers shop, gun shop, several pubs and the much-admired Lion Inn. The village also offers a wide variety of clubs, groups and activities for all ages, adding to its strong sense of community and appeal.

Ideal for commuters, the recently opened Beaulieu Park railway station is situated just over a mile away on foot, providing convenient access to wider transport connections.

Boreham is also steeped in history and character, with two designated conservation areas that showcase a number of buildings of architectural and historic interest. These include the 16th-century timber-framed Clockhouse, the historic St Andrew's Church, originally a small Saxon building, and a variety of attractive period homes. The village is further enhanced by the presence of Boreham House, an elegant Grade I listed mansion set within approximately 35 acres, originally constructed between 1728 and 1733 for Benjamin Hoare. From 1931 until 1997, Boreham House was owned by the Ford Motor Company and was used as a college.

This attractive village setting, combined with its excellent amenities, rich heritage and convenient transport links, makes Boreham a truly exceptional place to call home.
