Old Church Barn is a delightful period barn conversion, set within private grounds of around one acre in the unspoilt village of Hempstead, just two miles from Holt and around four miles from the North Norfolk coast.

Full of character and charm, the property offers beautifully presented accommodation with a wonderful sense of space throughout. The ground floor includes a welcoming entrance hall, a generous sitting room with an open fireplace and wood burner, a dining room opening to the garden, and a kitchen/breakfast room with a two-door Aga. There is also a utility room, cloakroom and a superb ground-floor principal bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

A galleried landing leads to three further bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, alongside a family bathroom.

Outside, the property is approached via a five-bar gate, opening onto a large shingled parking area and detached double garage. The grounds are a real feature, with mature shrubs and trees, lawned areas, covered seating, a summer house, potting shed, fruit cage and wildlife pond. Much of the garden has been left natural in style, creating a peaceful setting that encourages local wildlife.

Hempstead is a small and picturesque village surrounded by rolling countryside, with excellent walks and cycle routes nearby. The coast at Weybourne, Salhouse, Cley, Blakeney and Morston is within easy reach, while Holt offers independent shops, cafés, schools and everyday amenities.

TOTAL FLOOR AREA: 2,548 sq.ft. (236.7 sq.m.) approx.

Holt

A STRONG SENSE OF COMMUNITY
AND A FINE MARKET TOWN

Holt thrives on a strong sense of community, supported by proud residents and local businesses. Many champion the ‘Love Holt’ initiative, celebrating the independent shops that bring vibrancy to the Georgian town centre. The town hosts numerous local events throughout the year, including the Holt Festival and the 1940s Weekend, which takes over the town and the heritage ‘Poppy Line’ railway running between Holt and Sheringham.

Holt boasts traditional shops like a butcher, fishmonger, and greengrocer. It even has its own department store and food hall, Bakers and Larners, a local landmark run by the same family since 1770. Chic boutiques and luxe lifestyle stores fill the town and its surrounding yards, offering beautiful items for your home and wardrobe. Norfolk Natural Living, known for locally made fragrances, is a notable stop.

Life in Holt is leisurely, with numerous spots to enjoy a coffee or a meal. Byfords café, believed to be the oldest house in town, is a central landmark and an ideal place to watch the world go by. There’s no rush—relax and savour country life! The town also hosts the historic Gresham’s School.

Holt features an abundance of Georgian properties, especially around the town centre. Further out, you’ll find leafy roads with stylish, detached 1930s family homes and well-designed contemporary houses that blend with the countryside. For those wanting to reconnect with nature, Holt Country Park and Spout Hills offer heathland and green spaces.

Holt is one of Norfolk’s finest market towns, offering the perfect spot to enjoy country life. With easy access to the coast and city, if this sounds like your kind of place, let us help you find your next property.

Note from Sowerbys
