SUMMARY

Located in a highly regarded residential area of Clevedon, this beautifully presented four-bedroom dormer bungalow at 4 Birch Avenue offers spacious, light and exceptionally flexible accommodation, perfectly suited to modern family life.

The property immediately impresses with a solid oak front door opening to a generous and practical porch area - an invaluable everyday space providing excellent storage for coats, shoes and outdoor wear, helping to keep the main home tidy. From here, the layout flows naturally into the kitchen/dining area with adjoining utility room or through to the large and welcoming entrance hall, creating a wonderful sense of movement and connectivity throughout the ground floor.

The kitchen/dining room forms the true heart of the home. A sociable and inviting space designed for both relaxed family living and entertaining. There is ample room for a substantial dining table, making it ideal for gatherings and celebrations. A door provides direct access to the rear garden, perfect for summer dining and easy indoor-outdoor living. Outside, an attached brick-built shed provides useful storage for garden equipment. Just off the kitchen, the separate utility room offers a highly practical area for washing machines, tumble dryers and additional storage, ensuring the main living spaces can remain uncluttered.

To the rear of the property, the spacious lounge is beautifully light and airy, with French doors opening onto the south facing garden allowing natural light to pour in. This generous reception room provides a comfortable yet elegant setting for both quiet evenings and larger gatherings, and with double glazing throughout the property, it remains warm year round. The original 1960's fireplace forms a focal point to the room and could be easily converted to house a log burner.

The ground floor accommodation is wonderfully versatile. There is large double bedroom and a further smaller bedroom, both enjoying windows overlooking the front garden. These rooms offer excellent flexibility and could equally serve as guest accommodation, a dedicated home office, playroom or hobby room depending on individual needs. A convenient downstairs WC with wash basin further enhances the practicality of the layout.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with two generously sized double bedrooms, each offering comfortable proportions and pleasant outlooks to the front and rear of the property. The spacious Harry Powell fitted bathroom is thoughtfully appointed, featuring a separate bath, walk-in shower, wash basin, WC and under eves storage, ideal for busy households seeking both comfort and convenience

Externally, the enclosed rear garden has been designed for both enjoyment and ease of maintenance. It comprises a patio area ideal for outdoor seating and entertaining, a lawned section for children or pets, a water tap, an enclosed storage area and fenced boundaries providing privacy and security. To the front, the property benefits from a lawned garden with mature shrubs adding greenery and kerb appeal, alongside driveway parking providing off-street space for two vehicles.

Throughout, the home feels bright, airy and well balanced, with adaptable spaces that can evolve with changing family requirements, including excellent potential for home working. Combining generous proportions, practical design and a sought-after location close to local amenities and the seafront, this superb property offers an exceptional opportunity and must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
