6 Hobbs Way

Bow, Crediton

- Extended detached four bedroom family home
- Elevated edge-of-village position in sought-after Bow with Dartmoor views
- Spacious living room for relaxed family living
- Kitchen and dining area enjoying open outlook
- Large conservatory creating bright, sociable year-round space
- Extended accommodation offering excellent value for size
- uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating
- Enclosed, level rear garden designed for easy maintenance
- Garage providing additional storage or secure parking

Set towards the edge of the popular Mid Devon village of Bow, 6 Hobbs Way enjoys an elevated position with open views southwards across the village rooftops towards Dartmoor. The setting feels light and open, yet the village centre is within walking distance, offering a primary school, village shop, doctors' surgery, pub and regular bus links.

The property has been extended over time and now provides spacious four bedroom accommodation arranged over two floors. The ground floor offers a comfortable living room, while the kitchen and dining area enjoy the best of the views and flow into a large conservatory, creating a bright and sociable space that works well for family life all year around. A separate utility room, accessed from the garden, helps keep practical tasks out of the main living areas. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms along with a family bathroom and separate WC. The property benefits from uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating.

Outside, the rear garden is enclosed and mainly level, offering usable space without excessive maintenance. To the front and side, there is parking for one vehicle with a carport leading to the garage.

Overall, this is a detached and extended family home offering more space than many at a similar price point, combined with an elevated outlook and a practical village setting. It represents excellent value for a four bedroom detached property in a well regarded village location.

BOW, being the geographical centre of Devon, is well positioned for accessing Dartmoor, the North Cornish coast, and the A30. Surrounded by rich and varied farmland, several homesteads are noted in the Domesday Book, while a 3rd Millenium woodhenge lies to the west of the Parish. The 12th century parish church of St Bartholomew lies on the outskirts of the village at Nymet Tracey. Along side its ancient roots, Bow offers a mix of character and newer properties and is home to families and older couples alike who are attracted by its well-regarded primary school (OFSTED: GOOD) and active community. Bow residents enjoy a range of facilities including an active village hall with lots of community events including a monthly local craft fair, modern doctor's surgery with its wellbeing garden, a local football team, a co-op, a garden centre with café, large playing area and pump track so great for families.

DIRECTIONS

For sat-nav use EX17 6JZ and the What3Words address is ///calm.sharpness.riders but if you want the traditional directions, please read on.

If in Crediton High Street, proceed West towards Copplestone on the A377. When reaching Copplestone, go through the traffic lights and bear left up the hill onto the A3072 towards Bow. Upon entering Bow, turn left into Station Road (in the middle of the village) and then take the first right into Godfreys Gardens. Go almost to the end and turn right into Hobbs Way and the house will be found on your right.
