"The community on Camerton Road is something special to be part of - whether it's borrowing a last-minute can of beans, street parties, or watching the football together outside, no ask is ever too big or too small. Beyond that, our little patch has always felt like a quiet, even wild, haven in the middle of the city, from birdsong in our back garden to walks through the Greenbank Cemetery at sunset spotting woodpeckers and jays. It has been the perfect place to bring our daughter into the world."
