

Shortgrove, Halmore, Berkeley

Halmore is a charming rural hamlet positioned on the outskirts of the historic market town of Berkeley, offering a peaceful countryside setting whilst remaining conveniently connected. Surrounded by open farmland and scenic walks, the area is ideal for those seeking a quieter pace of life with beautiful views and a strong sense of community.

Berkeley itself provides a range of everyday amenities including local shops, a primary school, cafés and the renowned Berkeley Castle. Further facilities can be found in the nearby towns of Dursley and Thornbury, with a wider selection of supermarkets, independent retailers and leisure facilities.

For commuters, the A38 is easily accessible, providing routes to Gloucester, Bristol and the M5 motorway network. Cam & Dursley railway station offers direct links to Bristol and Birmingham, making the location both rural and well-connected.

Halmore offers the perfect balance of countryside living with practical accessibility — a highly desirable setting for families and professionals alike.

DESCRIPTION

Occupying an enviable position in the heart of Halmore, this beautifully presented four-bedroom semi-detached cottage is rare to the market and enjoys uninterrupted views across open fields to both the front and rear. Combining character charm with modern practicality, the property offers spacious and versatile accommodation ideal for family living.

The home is entered via a practical utility room, thoughtfully designed for everyday convenience, which in turn leads into the stylish modern kitchen. From here, the dining room provides an excellent space for entertaining, with French doors opening onto the rear garden and allowing natural light to flood the interior. The lounge flows seamlessly from the dining area, creating a wonderful sense of openness, and features front-facing windows along with a charming log burner — the perfect focal point for cosy evenings. A contemporary ground floor shower room completes the downstairs accommodation.

To the first floor are three generous double bedrooms, including a superb principal bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe. A well-appointed family bathroom serves this level. Bedroom four occupies the upper floor and benefits from a Velux window, offering flexibility as a guest suite, home office or hobby room.

Externally, the gardens are a particular highlight. Predominantly laid to lawn and enjoying open countryside views, the outdoor space also features a patio seating area, vegetable patch and gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking. A separate double garage is fitted with solar panels and battery storage, enhancing the property's efficiency and long-term sustainability.

Benefitting from all mains services, this delightful cottage offers the perfect blend of rural tranquillity and modern comfort — an exceptional home in a sought-after village setting.
