Description

A substantial development opportunity offering scope for redevelopment. Ready for buyers looking to make it their own and is perfect for those seeking to add a personal touch while carrying out some modernisation.

Featuring two generously sized bedrooms, offering comfortable living space, along with a bathroom and a kitchen.

A spacious reception room forms the heart of the home, providing excellent potential for a welcoming living area, while the dining room completes this property.

Externally, the front driveway offers convenient off-street parking. To the rear, a private garden provides a peaceful outdoor space, mainly laid to lawn.

Situation

Located on a quiet residential street, Gerrard Gardens in Pinner, is a highly desirable address offering a strong blend of village charm and everyday convenience. Particularly appealing to families due to its proximity to a number of well-regarded schools including Coteford Junior, West Lodge Primary School, Pinner Wood School, Haydon School and Pinner High School. Eastcote Ruislip and Pinner Underground Stations (Metropolitan/Piccadilly Lines) are within easy reach, providing fast and direct access to Central London, while excellent road links via the A40, A404 and M25 support wider commuting, and the area is well served by Eastcote & Pinner High Streets with its mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and supermarkets.
