Adjacent to the kitchen is a practical utility room with extra appliance space and a convenient secondary door to the garden. Completing the home is a separate guest WC off the main hallway, adding to the property's practicality.

The property is approached via a generous pull-in driveway, providing parking for up to three vehicles and leading directly to a double garage. A small step rises to a charming pathway that guides you to the front door. The front garden is private and thoughtfully designed as a usable outdoor space throughout the day.
