

CROFT 7, GLEN COTTAGE & MOBILE LODGE | MALLAIG | PH41 4QN

PRICE GUIDE: £470,000

Occupying a prime elevated position on the edge of the bustling coastal village of Mallaig, Glen Cottage forms an impressive and charming detached home set within the owner-occupied Croft 7 (Crofting Register No. C5299), enjoying spectacular uninterrupted sea views towards the Isle of Skye. A fine example of a traditional Highland cottage, the property has been thoughtfully upgraded and modernised in recent years while retaining its character. Offering deceptively spacious accommodation over two levels, the cottage comprises a bright dual-aspect lounge/diner with feature multi-fuel stove and patio doors, a striking Wren kitchen with integrated appliances, a newly installed utility/cloakroom, entrance porch and hallway on the ground floor, with two double bedrooms and a contemporary shower room on the upper level. Benefiting from double glazing, an electric wet heating system and tasteful neutral décor throughout, the property is presented in walk-in condition and would suit a permanent home, idyllic Highland retreat or investment in the thriving self-catering market. Further enhancing this exceptional package is a substantial detached one-bedroom mobile lodge with two bathrooms, providing excellent additional accommodation or holiday letting potential. Extending to approximately 2.79 acres in total, the property includes the decrofted area on which the cottage sits together with the surrounding owner-occupied croft. Croft 7 offers purchasers the rare opportunity to embrace the unique Highland crofting lifestyle, whether continuing traditional crofting activities, keeping livestock, cultivating the land or simply enjoying the privacy, space and freedom that accompanies ownership of a registered croft. For buyers relocating from elsewhere in the UK, it represents an opportunity to become part of Scotland's distinctive crofting heritage while enjoying an outstanding coastal setting. An application for the erection of a detached dwellinghouse was submitted to Highland Council in May 2026 and is currently under consideration, offering exciting future development potential.

Mallaig is a popular west coast village at the end of the famous "Road to the Isles" from Fort William. Its picturesque harbour provides regular ferry services operated by Caledonian MacBrayne and Western Isles Cruises to Armadale on the Isle of Skye, Inverie in Knoydart, and the Small Isles of Rùm, Eigg, Muck and Canna. The village offers an excellent range of amenities, including hotels, restaurants, shops, a renowned bakery, gallery, and both primary and secondary schools. Further facilities are available in Fort William, which is easily reached by road or rail, including the iconic Jacobite Steam Train.
