Chislehurst, Chislehurst, BR7

Guide price £2,500,000

This stunning home is a Grade II listed country house of rare charm, set within beautifully landscaped grounds in one of Chislehurst's most desirable addresses.

Dating from the early 19th century, this weatherboarded cottage has grown from a modest dwelling into a gracious home while retaining its listed character, including white-painted weatherboarding, sash windows and a welcoming hooded porch.

The house offers around 4,133 sq ft of accommodation arranged over three floors. The reception hall opens to a drawing room, bay-fronted dining room, a further reception with bar, boot room and a light-filled breakfast kitchen.

Within the grounds lies a 905 sq ft self-contained cottage, ideal for guests, family or staff, alongside additional outbuildings including a summer house plus two versatile and sizeable garden stores. A detached home office is also available by separate negotiation.

The gardens provide a rare sense of privacy, with sweeping lawns, terraces, established beds and a kitchen garden. A private gate opens directly onto Scadbury Park Nature Reserve, offering woodland walks and meadows as an extension of your own green space. A detached garage and ample parking complete the amenities.

Set within Perry Street Conservation Area, the property is moments from Chislehurst High Street with its boutiques, cafés and everyday conveniences. The area is renowned for its excellent schools, including Farringtons, Bromley High, Eltham College and Babington House. Chislehurst and Elmstead Woods stations offer swift services into central London, with the A20 and M25 giving access to the wider region.

This property represents more than a house – it is a way of life: elegant interiors, tranquil gardens and direct access to nature, all within easy reach of the capital.
