Well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offering flexible and well-balanced accommodation. The property benefits from a practical layout, generous room sizes and a bright, welcoming feel throughout.

The Crofts is a well-established and sought-after development within walking distance of Corbridge, one of Northumberland's most picturesque and desirable villages. The village is home to a fantastic range of amenities, including independent shops, cafes, pubs, restaurants, a GP surgery, post office, and a Co-op supermarket.

Families are well served by excellent local schools, with Corbridge First and Middle Schools nearby, and Queen Elizabeth High School in Hexham providing outstanding secondary education.

Commuters will appreciate the excellent transport links, with Corbridge Railway Station offering direct services to Newcastle and Carlisle, and the A69 close by for easy road access to Hexham, Newcastle city centre, and beyond.
