Guide Price £1,250,000 - £1,300,000

Marston Grange is a substantial six-bedroom period farmhouse set within just over two acres of private gardens and paddocks in the picturesque village of Long Marston.

This home is ideal for buyers seeking a property with scope for modernisation and reconfiguration.

Approved planning consent exists for extensions and conversion of out buildings, presenting a rare opportunity to create a unique and personalised living space. The large footprint of the property, combined with its flexible layout, makes it perfectly suited for a growing family, multi-generational household, or someone looking to add value through sympathetic renovation.

Built in 1778 and thoughtfully extended in 1860 and 1895, the property provides over 5,200 sq ft of accommodation (including outbuildings), ideal for families, equestrian enthusiasts, or anyone seeking a rural retreat with easy city access. The main residence spans approximately 3,700 sq ft across two floors and features six spacious double bedrooms, three bathrooms, and four versatile reception rooms. Period features such as tall ceilings, fireplaces, and sash windows combine with elegant interiors to create a home full of character and charm.

At the heart of the house, the country kitchen features a traditional Rayburn, original timber flooring, and an adjoining walk-in pantry and utility area. Entertain in the elegant dining room, relax in the snug or sitting room, or enjoy the billiard room—complete with a feature cast iron range fireplace and its own staircase, adding a touch of grandeur. Upstairs, the principal suite enjoys peaceful garden views, complemented by a beautifully appointed family bathroom with a freestanding roll-top bath and period-style fittings.

Set on just over 2 acres, the property comprises formal gardens and a grass paddock. To the rear, over 1,300 sq ft of outbuildings offer exceptional potential and already benefit from planning permission to create a 2-bedroom annexe and extensions to the farmhouse. Secure off-street parking and a large garage complete this extraordinary home.

The surrounding grounds provide ample outdoor space, with paddocks suitable for small-scale equestrian use or garden projects, alongside private gardens offering both seclusion and a tranquil countryside outlook. The property is conveniently located for access to York, Harrogate, and surrounding villages, combining rural charm with practical connectivity.

Whilst some modernisation is required, the scale, character and potential of Marston Grange make it a standout opportunity. A viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate the possibilities and scope this distinctive home has to offer.
