

9 High View Road, Leek, ST13 5BS

Offers in the region of £285,000

"Somewhere between the views, the quiet mornings and the little moments, you'll find a place that feels like home."

We are delighted to present this well-designed two bedroom semi-detached home situated on High View Road in Leek, benefiting from epic views across the town and surrounding countryside. This unique property offers spacious and versatile accommodation, including a converted garage providing an additional reception room, study or third bedroom. Outside, there is off-road parking, a private landscaped rear garden and an open outlook over adjoining fields. An excellent choice for first-time buyers, commuters, small families or those seeking a flexible home near town with a rural feel.

Denise White Estate Agent Comments

A well-presented and versatile two bedroom semi-detached home, ideally positioned on High View Road in Leek, benefiting from expansive views across Leek and the surrounding countryside. The current owners, who commute to London for work, have carried out a range of cosmetic improvements over recent years (including fully boarded loft, new boiler and extractor fan in the bathroom), creating a comfortable and welcoming home with a number of flexible living spaces.

The property is approached via a secure entrance porch, providing useful space for coats, shoes and deliveries, which leads into the entrance hall. The hall benefits from a useful under-stairs storage cupboard, stairs rising to the first floor and access into the main living accommodation.

The spacious and naturally light-filled lounge is a particularly attractive room featuring a characterful exposed-brick fireplace with an eco log-burning stove creating a lovely focal point. The room has been thoughtfully designed by the current owners, in the mid-century style, and offers considerable flexibility for a range of furniture layouts.

From the lounge, you enter the modern fitted kitchen, which overlooks the rear garden and provides a good range of storage and bespoke workspaces. The kitchen then leads through to a rear hallway, providing access to the garden and the property's versatile, converted garage.

The former garage has been converted to create a bright and adaptable additional reception room, currently suited to use as a dining room, study, home office, bedroom or further sitting room depending on the new owner's requirements. This flexibility is a real benefit and adds valuable space to the home.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a generous space with fitted storage and wardrobes, while also enjoying excellent elevated views across Leek and the surrounding countryside – undoubtedly one of the property's standout features.

The second bedroom is a comfortable double bedroom overlooking the rear garden and open fields beyond. Completing the first floor is a stylish family bathroom, featuring part-tiled walls and a modern, characterful finish.

Externally, the property benefits from a designed front garden and driveway providing parking for approximately one to two vehicles. To the rear is a particularly private and enclosed garden, expertly landscaped with established planting and greenery. There is a paved patio and outside dining area, bordered by handcrafted dry stone walls, steps leading to a lawned section and a further space towards the rear currently used as a barbecue area.

The garden backs onto protected open fields, giving the property a pleasant semi-rural feel while still being within walking distance of Leek and its amenities. For commuters, both Stoke and Macclesfield stations are only 25mins drive away. And for nature and adventure lovers, this property is at the foothills of the Peak District with easy access to the Roaches and beyond.

Overall, this is a very well-maintained and versatile home with excellent views, flexible additional accommodation and a private rear garden backing onto protected fields, making it an appealing proposition for first-time buyers, commuters, small families or those looking for a home with useful additional working, entertaining or sleeping space.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
