GUIDE PRICE £289,000

A compact, detached bungalow with a lovely south facing garden and both a garage and off-street parking, conveniently located on the southern edge of Pickering town.

A detached brick-built bungalow with a good range of modern accommodation, situated on Firthland Road, on the western edge of the town. Built as part of a pair of properties around 30 years ago, 41 Firthland Road provides 850 square feet of space with an easy flow of adaptable accommodation, an attractive, well stocked south facing garden and off-street parking with a single garage.

In brief the accommodation comprises the following, entrance hallway, breakfast kitchen, sitting room and conservatory. There are up to three bedrooms and a refitted main shower room.

Pickering is a bustling market town, famous for its castle and steam railway, and located on the southern boundary of the North York Moors National Park and close to the heritage coastline. The town offers a wide range of amenities, including primary and secondary school, sports centre, restaurants, public houses and an array of retailers.
