25.5 Acres, Llanboidy

Whitland, Carmarthenshire

The land extends to 25.5 acres or thereabouts in total and is level or gently sloping, productive land, divided into several fields within natural hedgerows. The land is reasonably well fenced with gated access leading onto the Llanboidy to Blaenwaun roadway. The land is all currently down to a well managed pasture, that has over the last few years been used for the production of high quality hay. This is a parcel of highly productive land that is suitable for grazing and cropping.

This is a parcel of land that occupies a very convenient rural setting within a mile or so of the village of Llanboidy in the heart of the west Carmarthenshire countryside, within a belt of highly productive early land, suitable for grazing or cropping. The land is also within easy reach of the villages of Llangynin and Whitland. The small town of Whitland lies some four miles or so to the south and benefits from a good range of local services and facilities that cater for most everyday requirements, with the A40 providing an excellent road link to the larger towns of Carmarthen and Haverfordwest.

General Remarks

This is an opportunity to purchase a block of highly productive land that occupies a convenient setting in the west Carmarthenshire countryside, within a mile or so of the large rural village of Llanboidy and within easy reach of the small town of Whitland, which lies on the A40 which provides an excellent road link to all the major towns of the area. The land is a parcel of land that has seen a good deal of inward investment and management within the pastures and boundaries in recent years to comprise a parcel of land that is capable of producing good crops. The land is suitable for grazing and cropping, and viewing at an early opportunity is highly recommended.
