LOCATION

Brockley Road enjoys a pleasant position within the popular village of Elsworth, surrounded by attractive open countryside while remaining conveniently placed for everyday amenities and within the school catchment for Swavesey. The village provides a community shop, primary school, sports facilities, desirable artisan bakery, craft butchery, cafe and farm shop at Frank's farm and welcoming pubs, with further shopping and leisure facilities available in nearby Cambourne, St Ives and Huntingdon. There are regular bus services from Brockley Road, providing access towards Cambridge and St Ives, while road links via the A428 offer convenient connections to Cambridge, the A14 and wider regional destinations. Cambridge city centre is readily accessible for employment, education, shopping and leisure, making Elsworth an appealing choice for those seeking a peaceful village setting without being too far removed from the amenities and facilities of the city.
