£585,000

A beautifully proportioned one-bedroom period apartment offering space, character, and a lifestyle that's hard to find in London. Spanning approximately 880 sq ft, the apartment feels immediately generous and welcoming. The open-plan kitchen and living space is ideal for modern living—perfect for hosting friends, cosy evenings in, or working from home without feeling cramped. High ceilings and period charm give the space a sense of calm and permanence that newer builds simply can't replicate. The bedroom is impressively sized, creating a peaceful retreat with room to breathe, while the bathroom feels more like a boutique hotel than a typical one-bed flat, complete with a standalone bath and walk-in shower—perfect for slow mornings or unwinding after a busy day.

A true rarity for a home of this type, the apartment also enjoys access to a large south-facing garden, offering private outdoor space that feels like an extension of the living area. Whether it's summer dinners, weekend lounging, or a quiet coffee in the sun, it's a feature that sets this home apart.
