Mapps Estates are delighted to bring to the market this well presented two bedroom detached bungalow residence set in a secluded, elevated position affording stunning views across the valley below to the sea beyond. The well-proportioned accommodation comprises a front entrance porch, reception hall, fitted kitchen, separate utility room, a spacious open plan living/dining room opening to the rear conservatory, two double bedrooms and a modern shower room. The property is set in mature, attractively landscaped gardens and has a garage and off-road parking for two cars. In addition, there is a large loft space which could potentially be converted to provide further accommodation subject to planning permission being obtained. Being sold with the advantage of no onward chain, an early viewing of this unique and desirable bungalow comes highly recommended.

Situated at top of Horn Street opposite St Martin's church, enjoying views along the valley to the sea, and conveniently located for the M20 Motorway, Channel Tunnel Terminal and ports of Folkestone and Dover, which are all easily accessed by car. High speed rail services are available from Folkestone West approximately ten minutes' drive away, giving fast services to St. Pancras, London in just over fifty minutes. There is a Tesco store within walking distance, while the pretty Cinque Port Town of Hythe is approximately ten minutes' drive away and offers a good selection of independent shops together with Waitrose, Aldi and Sainsbury's stores. The historic Royal Military Canal runs from Seabrook and through Hythe and offers pleasant walks and cycle rides. The seafront is also only five minutes' drive away. Primary schooling is within five minutes' walk and secondary schooling is available in Folkestone including both boys' and girls' grammar schools.
