Guide Price £275,000 to £300,000

This recently redecorated two-bedroom mid-terrace property is set in the sought-after area of Ranmoor, offering well-presented and generously proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors, with the added benefit of basement storage.

The house retains a number of original features, adding character throughout, while the interior has been finished in a light, neutral style and benefits from new carpets and flooring throughout. The street has a strong sense of character, lined with attractive period properties and positioned on a quiet no-through road, creating a peaceful setting.

To the rear, there is a delightful enclosed courtyard with outhouse storage, providing useful outdoor space.

The spacious bathroom is well appointed and includes both a bath and a separate shower. The kitchen is fitted with newly installed appliances, offering a modern and practical space.

The location is particularly convenient, with local amenities nearby and several well-regarded green spaces including Endcliffe Park, Bingham Park and Forge Dam all within easy walking distance. Regular bus services along Fulwood Road provide access to the city centre, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals and the universities, while highly regarded schools are also close by.

Ideal for a first-time buyer or professional couple, this attractive home is expected to be popular. Early viewing is recommended. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.
