Combining period charm with generous, flexible living space, this impressive semi detached home in sought after Peverell offers substantial accommodation arranged over four floors, making it an ideal choice for growing families or those seeking versatile living.

The ground floor offers two reception rooms featuring a period open fireplace with pocket sliding doors seamlessly connect the two rooms, allowing the layout to be opened up for larger gatherings. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and a practical peninsula, provides preparation and dining space. French doors open directly onto the garden, creating a wonderful connection between the indoor and outdoor living areas. A staircase from the hallway leads to the fully usable lower ground floor, an outstanding addition that greatly enhances the property's versatility. This level comprises a bar and entertainment area, utility room with cloakroom/wc and a substantial storage space, offering endless possibilities for hobbies, entertaining or home working.

The first floor hosts two generous double bedrooms alongside a single bedroom ideal as a home office or nursery. These are served by two shower rooms, one featuring a spacious double shower enclosure, while the second offers a shower experience complete with body jets, integrated lighting and music system. Occupying the top floor, the dormer loft conversion provides two further bedrooms together with a stylish Jack and Jill bathroom featuring a corner spa bath with jets, creating a relaxing retreat.

A decked terrace extends directly from the kitchen, while steps lead to a sun soaked courtyard that offers a private outdoor space with a pathway leading to the lower ground floor and gated side access allows easy passage from the front of the property to the rear garden.

Offering an abundance of living space and remarkable flexibility throughout, this substantial period home is perfectly suited to modern family life and a viewing is highly recommended.
