DESCRIPTION

A superb larger than average period end terraced family home beautifully presented throughout.

The accommodation is approached via a long welcoming entrance hall with attractive tiled floor. There are two reception rooms with natural wood flooring and the sitting room to the front has a focal point of a log burner set within an exposed brick fireplace and with a tiled hearth. The sitting room opens into the dining room which has double doors leading onto the rear gardens and also provides access to the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of attractive units and with a range of quality integrated appliances and the added benefit of an adjacent utility room. From the kitchen there is also access to an understairs storage cupboard and also double doors lead onto the south westerly facing rear gardens.

To the first floor there are three well proportioned bedrooms, two of which benefit from fitted wardrobes and there is additional storage within the landing. The accommodation is then completed by the family bathroom/WC fitted with an attractive white suite with chrome fittings.

Externally towards the front, side and rear there is a courtyard garden laid with artificial grass and block paving all benefitting from a south westerly aspect to enjoy the afternoon and evening sun.

The location is ideal being within easy reach of Navigation Road Metrolink station and with Altrincham town centre a little further distant. Timperley village is also close by at the top of Grove Lane. Local shops are available at the bottom of Deansgate Lane and the property is also well placed being in the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools including Altrincham Girls and Boys Grammar Schools and within close proximity to Wellington School.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the standard and proportions of the accommodation on offer.
