Once a modest fisherman's cottage, this deceptively spacious home has been cleverly extended accommodating the slope of the ground to now range over two levels.

The elevated nature of the cottage provides long views over the estuary towards Newton Ferrers village and down towards the harbour. Occupying an unique position on a popular road in the riverside village of Noss Mayo, this cottage has the benefit of facing West to make the most of the afternoon and evening sun. This charming cottage enjoys water views from the living room, master bedroom, dining area, garden and summer-house. It has two double bedrooms which both benefit from en-suite bathrooms. The living room is welcoming and cosy with a fireplace, with slate hearth, wooden lintel and wood burner.

The original beams are still exposed in the living room, and wooden beams have been installed in the kitchen and dining area in keeping with the period of the cottage. A viewing is highly advised to appreciate the unique position and aspect of this property. Stamp Duty Incentive Available (subject to terms – contact agent for details). Available to qualifying buyers at an agreed minimum price, with no renegotiation after survey.

SERVICES

Mains electricity, water, drainage and gas are connected to the cottage.
