INTRODUCTION

A Substantial Residence of Exceptional Proportions

Occupying a prominent, elevated position within the exclusive setting of Croft Park, this detached property stands in established grounds of approximately 0.67 acres. The accommodation, which extends to over 4,000 sq ft, offers a sense of scale and privacy that is synonymous with this highly regarded North Ferriby address.

The interior is characterized by its generous proportions and a versatile layout. A spacious entrance reception with a vaulted ceiling serves as the heart of the home, featuring both a formal staircase and a feature spiral staircase. These lead to a galleried mezzanine living area and bar, which opens onto a private balcony overlooking the rear garden—an ideal space for entertaining or quiet relaxation.

The ground floor provides a highly flexible arrangement of rooms, including a snug, dedicated office, and a cinema room, alongside two conservatories. A notable feature is the indoor heated resistance swimming pool suite with an adjoining shower room.

While the property offers a significant and functional footprint, it now presents a clear opportunity for a new owner to undertake a program of cosmetic updating and refinement. The extensive grounds include a circular driveway to the front with a central lawn, while the rear and side gardens enjoy a southerly aspect. Due to its elevated position, the property enjoys far-reaching views across to the River Humber from both the house and the gardens.

LOCATION

Croft Park is an exclusive residential cul-de-sac situated off Woodgates Lane, North Ferriby. North Ferriby is one of the most distinguished villages in the East Riding, nestled on the northern bank of the Humber Estuary. It offers an exceptional quality of life, celebrated for its community spirit, surrounding landscapes, and stunning riverside views. Together with the nearby villages of Swanland and Melton, the area provides a highly desirable residential environment that perfectly balances a peaceful village lifestyle with immediate access to modern conveniences.

The local infrastructure is excellent, catering to both daily needs and leisure. The village heart features an impressive church and there are a variety of independent shops, a convenience store, and charming local cafés, alongside the popular Duke of Cumberland pub. Residents benefit from being just minutes away from more extensive amenities in nearby Hessle and Willerby, while the scenic riverside walkways and the village hall and local village social club offer fantastic opportunities for recreation and community engagement.

The village is home to the well-regarded North Ferriby Primary School, known for its strong community links. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the well-regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College, with prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, also within easy reach.

North Ferriby provides superb regional connectivity, particularly for those who commute by rail or road. The village features its own railway station with regular services to Hull, Leeds, York, and Sheffield. For motorists, the A63 is immediately accessible, providing a direct link to Hull or the M62 corridor and the national motorway network, ensuring effortless travel across the region.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 8 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 11 miles
- York: Approx. 33 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 53 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.

OUTSIDE

The property is set well back from the exclusive Croft Park roadway, making a grand first impression. A sweeping circular driveway provides extensive parking and leads directly to the integrated double garage. This driveway frames a beautifully maintained central island featuring a neat lawn and an ornamental water feature, bordered by lavender and topiary shrubs. A tall, mature coniferous hedge provides a high degree of privacy from the neighboring properties.

The expansive grounds extend to approximately 0.67 acres, wrapping around the house to the side and rear. The rear garden enjoys a highly coveted south westerly aspect, maximizing the sunlight throughout the day. It features a large, paved patio area, directly accessible from the cinema room and one of the conservatories, creating an ideal setting for al fresco dining and outdoor entertaining. Beyond the patio, the garden is predominantly laid to a well-kept lawn, interspersed with a varied selection of mature trees and established shrubs that provide a natural, private screen.

A defining characteristic of this property is its elevated position. The grounds offer captivating, far-reaching views across the River Humber and the surrounding landscape—vistas that can be appreciated not only from the extensive gardens but also from several vantage points within the house itself, particularly the private balcony off the first-floor mezzanine lounge. The property stands as a substantial, established residence within its plot, surrounded by natural greenery and offering a sense of privacy and scale.
