

Sloane Avenue, South Kensington

£650 Per Week

Located in the heart of Chelsea between King's Road and South Kensington, this spacious apartment is set within a sought-after portered block with lift access. Originally a one-bedroom property, the living room has been converted into a second bedroom, making it perfect for two sharers — especially Imperial College students looking for excellent transport links and vibrant surroundings.

The flat is offered furnished, featuring two well-proportioned bedrooms, a fully fitted kitchen with modern appliances, and a contemporary bathroom. Heating and hot water are included in the rent, providing great value and convenience.
